

Are you an experienced support worker looking for an exciting new job role? Or do you know one?

Title: Complex Care Support Worker

Location: Solihull/Coventry area

Wage: £11 ph

Days & Hours: Flexible part-time and bank hours to be discussed in interview. Will always be working on a 2:1 basis with a qualified nurse.

Staff will be open to covering sickness/emergency leave/annual leave
Opportunity and willingness to support with holidays and short breaks

This is an exciting and varied role where you will support the young lady with all aspects of day-to-day life. Most importantly you should enjoy adding, fun, value, meaning and opportunities to her life. This role will be challenging at times, but with time, patience and a great staff team, it will be very rewarding and there is the opportunity to make a big difference.

The role will involve supporting the nurse to deliver all aspects of care and support to the client, including personal care and medical interventions as required. You will have the opportunity to learn and carry out many different skills and therapies, with support from and under the direction of a qualified nurse at all times, for example behaviour management, sensory integration programme, assisting with medical procedures.

Alongside all the clinical and daily care tasks, you will also need to be proactive and engaging and enjoy many opportunities to have fun, trips in the community and day trips further afield.

Are you caring, patient and a dedicated support worker who enjoys being able to provide 1:1 support and holistic care in a home/community environment? Are you someone who is calm, proactive and confident and keen to learn? Do you have experience working with people with autism, challenging behaviour and communication needs? Do you have the ability to work well within a small committed team and build good relationships with the client and other members of staff?

If you have the above and ideally have experience supporting a person with complex medical needs we would like to hear from you.

Driver with a full clean manual UK driving licence and non-smoker are essential.

The client says:

“This will be a very rewarding and fun role where you will have the opportunity to work with an excellent multi-disciplinary team and make a real difference to my life. I hope we will build a trusting and engaging relationship so you can help me to develop and maintain a good quality of life, support me on my journey and in achieving my goals. Full client-specific training will be provided to help staff develop the skills they need to support me.”
